Paris 1890 – Unlaced

Back by popular demand is Anne Undeland who performed at Clark Hall in three previous one-woman shows. Here she provides a humorous, slightly risqué, yet still poignant glimpse into Parisian society of the Belle Époque. The play brings to light an intriguing mystery featuring five women – all performed by Ms. Undeland. Wait until you see how it is ends up!

Wednesday, July 27 – 7:30 PM – Tickets $20.00

HyannisSound

Come tap your feet to Cape Cod's own College cappella performers. This much sought after group performs all over the Cape and has quite a following here at Sagamore Beach. The upbeat enthusiasm of these collegiates in concert will make a happy heart.

Wednesday, August 24 – 7:30 PM – Tickets $20.00

Two For The Road

American violinist Emil Altschuler and Belgian guitarist Jerome Mouffe blend an enticing sampling of Spanish, Tango, gypsy and contemporary compositions in conjunction with the rendering of traditional classic masterworks. Come and hear the unique music that has made them popular in bistros, cafes and music halls throughout the United States and Europe. Performed in the round.
